

Supporting Students to Meet their Goals

When Greystone College’s new suite of business qualifications start in May, we know many current and future registered students may have to adjust their study programs. We are here to make those transitions easy.

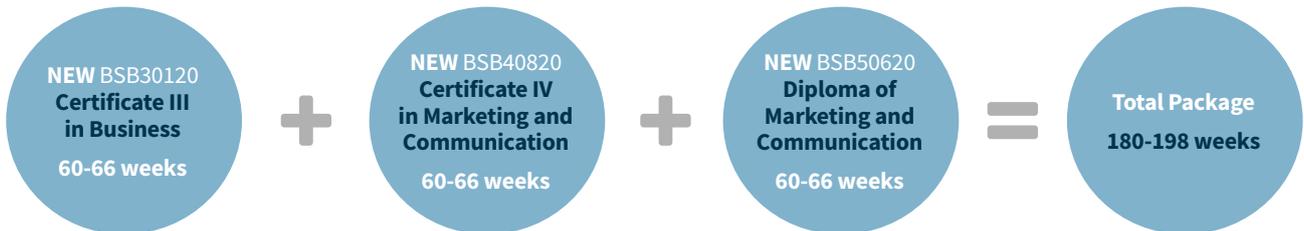

EXAMPLES OF HOW STUDENT STUDY PACKAGES MIGHT CHANGE

Scenario 1: No change to program options. Duration stays almost the same.

Maria is currently registered for:

Maria can easily transition to:

Scenario 2: Some program options change. Duration gets longer.

Toshiro is currently registered for:

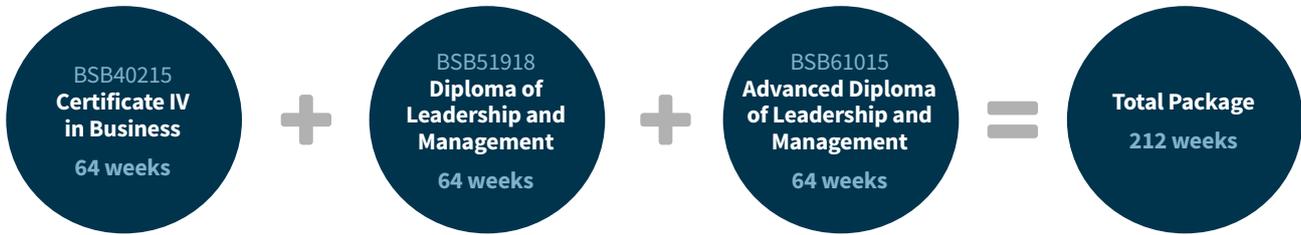

Since the Certificate II in Customer Engagement is no longer offered, Toshiro can start his package program with the new Certificate II in Workplace Skills to build a strong set of skills for entry level business services jobs and a good foundation for moving into his Certificate III. His program length will extend by 16-22 weeks:

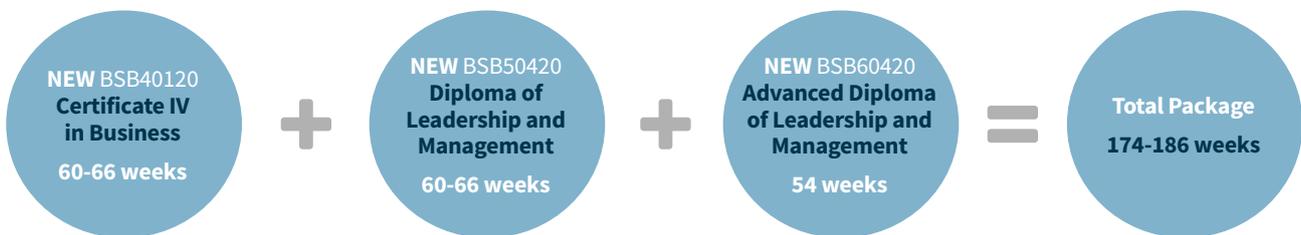

Scenario 3: No change to program options. Overall duration is reduced.

Sergio is currently registered for:

Sergio can transition to the same qualifications, but his program length will be 26-38 weeks shorter:

These are just a few examples out of many. Every student's situation, goals and flexibility will be different and we will be providing personalized support to help them make the best choices for their needs!
