Program Description

The Certificate in Interpreting and Translation program at Greystone College is an excellent stepping stone for learners who wish to build careers in the interpreting-translation field or wish to strengthen their bilingual skills by learning the fundamentals and basic methods of interpreting and translation. The program introduces consecutive interpreting and sight translation, and learners are able to practice these techniques in various exercises. Learners can enhance their interpreting accuracy and communicative skills by learning common English idioms and expressions while learning how to avoid awkward translation. By looking at different weekly topics, students will expand their field knowledge and language needed to compete in the global job market.

Successful graduates not only increase confidence in their English language fluency but are capable of using both languages comfortably in any working field.

Option to take The Cultural Interpreter Language Interpretation Skills Assessment Tool (CILISAT).

Program Overview

Students will cover various topics throughout the course, and will learn various methods of interpreting-translation, as well as vocabulary for different fields and purposes.
